

NOV 26 1935

EXPERIMENT STATION FILE

File with
Ext. serv. Circ.

List of Available Extension Service Circulars from Nos. 161 to 225.

| Number | Author                      |   | Issued |
|---------------|------------------------------------|---|---------------|
| 161           | E. H. Shinn                        | Educational values in 4-H club work   | 7/31          |
| 162           | J. M. Stedman                      | Foreign agricultural activities   | 6/31          |
| 163           | M. C. Wilson andC. R. Jaccard  | Results of the five-year wheat-belt extension program   | 9/31          |
| 164           | C. B. Smith                        | The outlook in agriculture in relation to 4-H club work   | 6/31          |
| 165           | Madge J. Reese andM. C. Wilson | Local leadership and its training in 4-H club work  | 7/31          |
| 166           | Gertrude L. Warren                 | Opportunities for the older girl in the extension program   | 7/31          |
| 167           | Madge J. Reese                     | Five years of boys and girls 4-H club work in western section   | 7/31          |
| 168           | O. E. Baker                        | The outlook for land utilization in the U. S.   | 7/31          |
| 169           |                                    | Western states extension conference   | 8/31          |
| 170           | Madge J. Reese                     | Report of home demonstration work in 1930   | 10/31         |
| 171           | M. C. Wilson andMary A. Rokahr | Household accounts and budgets  | 10/31         |
| 172           | Wm. A. Lloyd                       | Extension work with young men and young women   | 1/32          |
| 173           | E. H. Shinn                        | Status of organization and administration of agricultural education among negroes                             | 1/32          |
| 174           | M. C. Wilson andC. R. Jaccard  | The effectiveness of extension work in clothing; a study of 95 farm homes in Ford County, Kansas, 1930        | 2/32          |
| 175           | Reuben Brigham                     | State and Federal cooperation in informational campaigns  | 4/32          |
| 176           | M. C. Wilson                       | Statistical results extension work 1931   | 5/32          |
| 177           | Grace E. Frysinger                 | Home demonstration work 1931  | 12/32         |
| 178           | O. E. Baker                        | Farming as a life work  | 7/32          |
| 179           | W. W. Clark andM. C. Wilson    | Conveniences and activities of supervisors of county extension agents   | 11/32         |
| 180           | G. L. Warren                       | Meeting the needs of older rural girls  | 4/33          |
| 181           | C. L. Chambers                     | Annual report of county agricultural agent work, 1931; some observations and extracts                         | 12/32         |
| 182           | C. W. Warburton                    | Progress in extension work 1932   | 12/32         |
| 183           | Lucinda Crile                      | The relationship of age and other factors to enrollment and continuation in 4-H club work                     | 2/33          |
| 184           | Reuben Brigham                     | Cooperation with the press in extension education   | 4/33          |
| 185           | E. H. Shinn                        | Outline for a course in agricultural education  | 2/33          |
| 186           | C. B. Smith                        | Twenty years of cooperative extension work  | 4/33          |
| 187           | M. C. Wilson                       | Statistical results of cooperative extension work 1932  | 5/33          |
| 188           | M. C. Wilson andIde P. Trotter | Results of legume extension in three south-east Missouri counties representing three stages in legume program | 6/33          |

| Number | Author                           |  | Issued |
|---------------|---|--|---------------|
| 189           | T. Roy Reid andM. C. Wilson         | Functions and activities of State extension specialists  | 7/33          |
| 190           | Ola P. Malcolm                          | The farm home of the future  | 7/33          |
| 191           | Do.                                     | Adding to the family living and income   | 7/33          |
| 192           | Florence L. Hall                        | 4-H Club Work, 1932  | 9/33          |
| 193           | Grace E. Frysinger                      | Trends affecting extension work  | 10/33         |
| 194           | Margaret Latimer                        | Planning a program of extension work for older farm girls  | 10/33         |
| 195           | C. W. Warburton                         | Fitting the extension program to the needs of the adjustment program   | 12/33         |
| 196           | E. H. Shinn                             | Agencies used and methods of procedure followed by negro agricultural agents (1) in carrying out their extension programs and (2) in measuring the results of their work                       | 3/34          |
| 197           | J. E. Whitlock                          | Junior extension work in Ontario, Canada   | 6/34          |
| 198           | C. B. Smith                             | How further may we develop our rural youth work in the United States   | 6/34          |
| 199           | Barnard D. Joy                          | The length of 4-H club membership Parts 1 and 2  | 8/34          |
| 200           | M. C. Wilson                            | Statistical results of cooperative extension work, 1933  | 8/34          |
| 201           | Erwin H. Shinn                          | A survey of the agencies used and the methods of procedure followed by Negro home demonstration agents (1) In carrying out their extension programs and (2) In measuring results of their work | 8/34          |
| 202           | J. M. Stedman                           | A study of agricultural, home economics, and 4-H club articles in representative daily and weekly newspapers in 1914 and 1930  | 8/34          |
| 203           | O. E. Baker                             | The outlook for rural youth  | 8/34          |
| 204           | M. C. Wilson andGeo. E. Adams       | Progress of extension work in Rhode Island during the 5-year period 1928-33  | 9/34          |
| 205           | H. W. Gilbertson                        | Report of county agricultural work, 1933   | 10/34         |
| 206           | Florence L. Hall                        | Report of home demonstration work, 1933  | 10/34         |
| 207           | Madge J. Reese                          | Boys' and girls' 4-H club work   | 12/34         |
| 208           | J. M. Stedman                           | Index to "Foreign agricultural extension activities" by countries from 1920 to June 1931, inclusive  | 12/34         |
| 209           | Esther Mildred Friesth                  | Teaching of child development through 4-H club work  |               |
| 210           | H. M. Dixon                             | Agricultural economics extension work in the United States   | 1/35          |
| 211           | Gertrude L. Warren                      | Youth movements abroad   | 3/35          |
| 212           | Eugene Merritt                          | Group discussions and the problems of farm young people  | 3/35          |
| 213           | Extension Studies& Teaching Section | 4-H Clothing Clubs   | 3/35          |
| 214           | Eugene Merritt                          | What is the opportunity in agriculture for the farm boy  | 4/35          |

| Number | Author                                 |   | Issued |
|---------------|---|---|---------------|
| 215           | Mildred Ives & Edward Matzen                  | A study of the functions and activities of the U. S. Civil Service Commission   | 5/35          |
| 216           | Extension Studies and Teaching - M. C. Wilson | Foreign agricultural extension activities   | 7/35          |
| 217           | M. C. Wilson                                  | Statistical results of cooperative extension work 1934  | 7/35          |
| 218           | Erwin H. Shinn                                | A survey of professional training offered at land-grant college institutions for prospective agricultural extension workers | 8/35          |
| 219           | Grace E. Frysinger                            | Trends in Home Economics  | 8/35          |
| 220           | Extension Studies & Teaching Section          | Lespedeza   | 9/35          |
| 221           | Agricultural Economics Extension              | Agricultural economics extension work 1934  | 8/35          |
| 222           | Grace E. Frysinger                            | Home demonstration work comes of age  | 9/35          |
| 223           | O. E. Baker                                   | The outlook for rural youth(supersedes E.S.C. 203)  | 9/35          |
| 224           | O. E. Baker                                   | Farming as a life work(supersedes E.S.C. 178)   | 9/35          |
| 225           | R. A. Turner                                  | Report of boys' and girls' 4-H clubs in the Central States, 1934  | 10/35         |

